UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

MARIAN LIBRARY

DAYTON, OHIO 45409

The world's largest collection of printed materials related to Marian themes:

34,000 books and pamphlets in over 50 languages, from the beginning of printing up to the present day.

4,000 items from the 15th through the 18th centuries, including exegetical commentaries, sermons, prayers, poems, treatises on theology and iconography, histories of shrines and of cultic forms.

the Clugnet Collection with more than 6,500 works on Marian shrines.

a general reference collection containing primary texts (the Migne patrologies, Acta Sanctorum, Patrologia Orientalis, Monumenta Germaniae...) as well as studies of the Bible, Church history, general theology, liturgy, iconography, religious anthropology, bibliographies of the Reformation, of religious orders, and of various printing epochs...

The Marian Library is a specialized rare book section forming part of the resources in the main library at the University of Dayton (over 16,000 volumes in religion and theology; 20,000 volumes in American and English literature...)
